

Sibylle Hodel studied sociology, economic and social history and journalism at the University of Zurich, graduating MA. Since 2000, Sibylle Hodel has been responsible for research consulting and management of European research projects, first as Research Manager and as of 2002 as Deputy Head of EU GrantsAccess. EU GrantsAccess was the joint office of the University of Zurich and ETH Zurich for international research cooperation until June 2024. In her role, Sibylle Hodel was responsible, among other things, for divisional management support and for the Euraxess network. She coordinated numerous EU projects in the areas of early career and career development, grants management, gender, diversity and inclusion.

Since 1 September 2024, she has been Liaison Officer on the President's staff, responsible for cooperation and projects with the ETH Foundation.
